

Alvaro bought treats for his class. The number of each type of treat bought is shown.

Type of Treat	Number of Treats Bought
Brownies	20
Muffins	10
Cinnamon Rolls	12
Nutty Bars	24
Oatmeal Cream Pies	30
Total Treats	96

For questions 1 through 5, use the table to describe the ratio of treats bought.

1. What is the ratio of muffins to oatmeal cream pies?

10:30 or 1:3

$\frac{10}{30}$ or $\frac{1}{3}$

2. What is the ratio of nutty bars to cinnamon rolls?

24:12 or 2:1

$\frac{24}{12}$ or $\frac{2}{1}$

3. For every 20 brownie(s) there are 24 nutty bar(s).
5 6

4. There are 15 oatmeal cream pies for every 6 cinnamon roll(s).

5. Complete the statements below to describe the ratio of total treats.

- a. The ratio of ☐ nutty bars ☒ oatmeal cream pies to total treats is 5:16.

- b. The ratio of cinnamon rolls to total treats is 12

96

☐ $\frac{1}{4}$.
☐ $\frac{1}{8}$.

The number of each type of treat eaten is shown.

Type of Treat	Number of Eaten Treats
Brownies	15
Muffins	2
Cinnamon Rolls	9
Nutty Bars	16
Oatmeal Cream Pies	10
Total Treats Eaten	52

For questions 6 through 10, use the table that describes the number of treats eaten by the class and the table of treats bought from the previous page.

6. What is the ratio of muffins eaten to muffins bought?

2:10 or 1:5

$\frac{2}{10}$ or $\frac{1}{5}$

7. What is the ratio of oatmeal cream pies eaten to oatmeal cream pies bought?

10:30 or 1:3

$\frac{10}{30}$ or $\frac{1}{3}$

8. For every $\frac{24}{3}$ nutty bars bought, $\frac{16}{2}$ nutty bars were eaten.

9. There were 3 brownies eaten for every $\frac{4}{20}$ brownies bought.

10. Complete the statements below to describe the ratio of treats eaten to total treats eaten.

- a. ☐ Cinnamon rolls ☒ Nutty Bars had a ratio of 4:13 of total treats eaten.

- b. For every 52 treats eaten, 15 of the treats were brownies.