

Geometry: Unit 4, Lesson 6

1. Rigid transformations are transformations that do not change the size or shape of an object. These include rotations, reflections, and what else?

2. What are two transformations that are isometries?

3. Which of the transformations of triangle A does not preserve distance and angle measure?

